Local Department.

Thank you, John, for those cherries.

Bangs Warner's new shoes are immense.
Mrs. Emma Baker is at home for the summer.

The unusual rain-fall is injuring the crops on clay soil.

Mrs. Fitch has purchased the Bangs place on Paw Paw street.

Joe Lane is happy. He no longer belongs to the ranks of grass widowers.

It will now be in order to address Hon. Julius Caesar as "Grandpa Burrows."

The position in our school offered to Miss May Myers, has been accepted by her.

Elvin Rowland returned from visiting friends at Devereux, Mich., on Monday last.

We might describe our summer as Richier did spring. "It is only winter painted green."

Rev. W. C. Burns will preach in the Free-will Baptist Church next Sabbath, July 9th.

That box of cherries, from Mr. Lawrence Martin's orchard, was very fine. Many thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Bassett of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, are the guests of Fred Bassett and wife.

Ed. Longwell has completed his studies at Ann Arbor, and has returned to us a full-fledged pharmacist.

We are glad we do not live in Iowa where another cyclone has just waited around to the tune of $175,000.

Venor predicts a frosty September! Now we feel sure of a late fall and plenty of time for the crops to mature.

Mr. W. N. Johnson, took one of Ed. Welch's fine wool rams, to Dakota. Mr. Johnson paid $75 for the animal.

A fire in their lumber yard destroyed quite a quantity of lumber for the Messrs. Packard of Covert, a few days ago.

James Goodman will preach at the First Baptist Church next Sunday a. m. and also at the Disciple Church in the evening.

M. U. Richardson is leading a life of single blessedness. His wife has left him—temporarily.

It is rumored that our townsman, A. Sherman Esq., is $300 ahead on corn options. That is satisfactory, no doubt.

Hon. J. J. Woodman is a subscriber to twenty-one different publications. Where is the man who takes a greater number?

George, when you ride after those trained geese be sure you have a boat that will carry you, otherwise you may have to swim for it.

Hawkins lost his spectacles while celebrating at Decatur. Now if it had been some other man and the saloons had been open—

The NORTHERNER received a pleasant call on Monday last from ex-sheriff Gates, of Kalamazoo. Glad to see you, Mr. Gates, call again.

The Mosier boys say they will have ripe peaches by the middle of July. Their crop is immense, and they are busy thinning the fruit.

Matthews, our enterprising news man, ordered upwards of 300 extra copies of daily papers containing the account of Guiteau's execution.

Wm. Markillie, the model farmer of Almema, is repairing his farm buildings, new roofing them, etc. He uses 54,000 shingles in doing it.

Mrs. John Hodges intends to remove to Valparaiso, Ind., in a short time, where she will remain until her daughter, Miss Minnie, completes her education.

Frank Stearns goes to Aberdeen, Dak., on Monday next, to look after the new "Model Store," which Duncombe, Stearns & Co. intend to start at that place.

The great bell which was recently hung in St. Paul's Cathedral, stands over nine feet high, with a rim thirty feet in circumference, and weighs seventeen tons.

Dr. Albert Thompson, formerly Surgeon of the 3d Mich. Cav., now residing at San Bernardino, Cal., has been visiting his old comrades and friends in town.

Ben. Heckert attended the Supreme Court last week and argued the case of Harrison vs. Harrison. The opinion of the court will not be given until the next term.

W. W. Hodge in last week's Sentinel intimates quite emphatically that Mr. Linderman has not told the exact truth in regard to certain matters relative to fast horses.

On Tuesday evening of last week, James Loveland's sawmill, in Bloomingdale township, was destroyed by fire. Loss, $2,500. Mr. L. intends to put up another mill.

There was a severe hailstorm in the 3 mile lake neighborhood on the afternoon of the 4th. Corn was considerably injured, being badly broken down, and the blades torn into shreds.

Alf. Ingraham was arrested on Monday last on a charge of assault and battery. He was arraigned before Esq. Mason, and at his request the trial was adjourned until Saturday next.

The room in the Franklyn cottage, Elberon, in which President Garfield died, is closed and draped heavily with mourning. In this condition it is stated it will always remain.—Interior.

H. K. Halsted, who has been shearing sheep for the past four weeks, made a record of 26 in a half day, for Edson Woodman. If any sheep-shearer has done any better, let's hear from him.

Duncombe, Stearns & Co., Paw Paw grocers, did a business amounting to over $46,000 for the year ending June 1. Paw Paw has three newspapers, and the firm advertises in each of them.—Dowagiac Times.

The Presbyterians are contemplating some much needed improvements to their church, such as a new roof, more comfortable seats, etc., the extent of the improvements to depend upon the liberality of those interested.

Hoppy went to Kalamazoo on the 4th and got home looking—well, just fair to medium, that's all. Fenner went to Chicago to see the ball play. He didn't get home until Thursday. He looked—full as well as we expected.

Venus, the beautiful planet so well known to every one, will make her transit on the 6th of December, 1882, and astronomers are already preparing for extensive observations to be taken on that day, hoping thereby to determine more accurately the sun's distance from the earth.

The celebration at Decatur was a grand success. The procession was very fine, the oration good, the programme of the afternoon games successfully carried out, and the entertainment closed in the evening by a brilliant display of fire works. A good many Paw Paw people attended. All saloons were closed, and although the crowd was a large one, it was sober and orderly.

At the examination of Crofoot and Slack before Esq. Galligan, on Monday last, on a charge of adultery, the respondents were bound over to the next term of the circuit court, and in default of bail were committed to jail.

It has been decided by the ministers of the different churches to hold union services on Sunday evenings during the next two months. The first meeting of the series will be held at the Disciple church, on Sunday evening next.

A Diamond Lake excursion, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Society, will take place soon after harvest. We presume all who participated in the fun of the former occasion, will be on hand for another "pleasure exertion."

One of the women, who was standing in the ring watching the games at Decatur, on the 4th, strikes square from the shoulder. We should not care to receive such a blow as she implanted on the nose of that chap who stood near her on that occasion.

The St. Jo. County Republican says that a mortgage was recently recorded in that county, given by the Mutual Union Telegraph Company, in the sum of $5,000,000. The instrument contained 8,324 words and the Register's fee amounted to ten dollars.

The report of the secretary of the Christian Sunday school for the quarter ending June 30th, 1882, shows the following items. Pupils enrolled, 123. Teachers, 11. Officers, 7. Average attendance, 80 9-13. Collection, for school, $22, for missions, 2.20. Total collection, $24.20. Amount in treasury, $35.18.

The Bangor base-balls came up to this village to have a little game with the Paw Paw boys. When they got here they felt awful bad because the Paw Paw club consisted of lads instead of young men. They felt still worse when the game was ended, as the home club has a score twice as long as that of the visitors.

The Bassett families held a re-union this week at Mr. LeSuer's, the following members being present: Fred Bassett and family, of Paw Paw; C. W. Bassett and family, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; L. H. Decker, and family, of Saginaw, Colorado, and Mrs. Bassett, of Paw Paw, mother of Fred, C. W., C. D., Mrs. Decker, and Mrs. LeSuer.—Marcellus News.

Those who remember the youngest son of Rev. Wm. Roe as the little Carleton who attended our Primary department when they lived in our village, will realize the flight of time when they learn that Carleton S. Roe was this year one of the graduates from the Dowagiac High School, and will also be pleased to know that he graduated with honor.

Passed from earth to a higher life, on the morning of July 4th at about the hour of three o'clock, James J. Forsyth, of this village. Mr. Forsyth was 73 years of age and had been an honored and highly respected citizen of Paw Paw for more than 35 years. He had long been a sufferer from that fell destroyer, consumption. His funeral was held at the Disciple Church on Thursday afternoon July 6th. A large circle of friends and relatives mourn his departure, but they feel that their loss is his eternal gain.

The case of the People vs. Shields, violation of the liquor law, was tried before Esq. Warner on Saturday last. The respondent is the hotel keeper at Gobles and was charged with keeping open his bar after the legal hour. The defense was represented by Mr. Heckert of this village and Mr. Powers of Kalamazoo, and the People by the Pros. Attorney. The case was closely contested and occupied nearly the entire day. The jury rendered a verdict of "Not Guilty," as they usually do in these cases.

At Allegan on Friday evening last, some parties built a bonfire to celebrate their joy at the hanging of Guiteau. They had a pile of boxes, over which was poured 30 gallons of gasoline. When it was ignited a terrific explosion took place, shattering the glass of five store fronts and doing other damage to property. Mat Willis, who caused the fire and three boys named Batt, Wagner and Nicholas, were severely burned, and Robert Delano was cut deeply in the loin.—Evening News.

Van Auker bought a fine specimen of a man a few days since but he paid too high a price for him. In making out a check for the purchase of the second's wool, Van's clerk drew it for $12 too much. The chap drew his money and lit out for home. Van sent a man to inform him of the error, whereupon the fellow said he knew it but he had got the money and intended to keep it. This is worse than stealing. We are glad the fellow don't live in Van Buren County. He is a resident of Kalamazoo County. We don't believe there is as mean a man in this county, nor another one like him in Kalamazoo County.
